relevant for the period from 1 July 2019 until 30 June 2024

This information sheet is for your information and is not legally binding. Solely the statutory provisions and the provisions of the collective labor agreement that have been declared generally binding are relevant in individual cases.

1. Why does a deposit have to be provided?

The deposit serves as security to cover claims of the Joint Country Commission of the Metal Industry (hereinafter "PLKM") under the collective employment agreement, in particular contractual penalties, control and procedural costs as well as further training and fulfillment contributions pursuant to Art. 13 cip. 13.3 and Appendix 15 of the collective employment agreement for the Swiss metal industry (hereinafter CEA) that has been declared as generally binding.

2. What is the legal basis for the deposit obligation?

The basis for the deposit obligation is, based on the resolution by the Federal Council regarding the declaration of universal application of the collective employment agreement for the Swiss metal industry dated 11 June 2018 (hereinafter RFC), Art. 13 cip. 13.3 of the CEA and Art. 2 Par. 2^{ter} of the federal law on accompanying measures for seconded employees and on the control of minimum wages regulated in normal labour contracts (secondment act).

3. Who is responsible for the handling of the deposit?

The Central Deposit Administration Authority Switzerland (ZKVS) with its registered office in Pratteln has been commissioned with the handling and administration of the deposits.

The deposit obligation applies from 1 June 2019 for all domestic and foreign employers who execute in the geographical scope of validity of the CEA pursuant to Art. 2 par. 1 of the BRB (all Switzerland except the cantons of Basle-Countryside, Basle-Townside as well as metalworks, metal-constructions and steel-constructions in the cantons of Vaud, Valais and Geneva) works in the area of metal-constructions, agricultural engineering, blacksmith, metalworks and steel-constructions (for details s. 5. In what amount does the deposit have to be made?

The amount of the deposit depends on the total order value per calendar year. With a total order value of more than CHF 2'000.--, it is to be provided as follows:

10. Where and when can the deposit be reclaimed?

An application for the reimbursement of the deposit must always be filed in writing with the ZKVS. Employers can file an application in the following cases:
